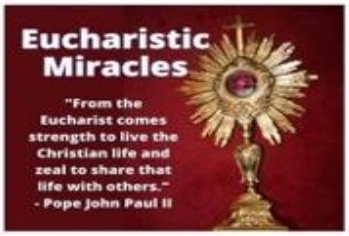
Exhibition of Eucharistic Miracles



November 15 & 16 after Mass in the hall

Dear Parishioners,

I am delighted to invite you to our Eucharistic Miracle Exhibition, a beautiful opportunity to deepen our faith in the real presence of Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist. This exhibition showcases documented Eucharistic miracles from around the world—moments when the veil between heaven and earth seemed to lift, revealing the profound mystery of Christ truly present among us.

These miracles remind us that the Eucharist is not a mere symbol, but the living Body and Blood of our Lord—His enduring gift of love and mercy. Each time we receive Holy Communion, we are united intimately with Christ and strengthened as members of His Body, the Church.

I encourage you to bring your families, friends, and neighbors to experience this exhibition. May it renew in all of us a deep reverence for the Blessed Sacrament and inspire a greater love for the Mass, where heaven touches earth in the most wondrous way.

With prayerful blessings,

Fr Anthony Narisetty

The Dedication of the Lateran Basilica

Body Building

But more than that, because God has from all time intended the church building to be a symbol of His Church and our bodies. This is what the readings for today's feast invite us to consider. God's prototype for the church is the Jerusalem Temple, described in this week's First Reading and Psalm. It's God's "holy dwelling," site of His presence in our midst, source of "living waters"—of all life and blessing. But God intended the Temple to give way to the Body of Christ.

That's what our Lord's words and actions in Sunday's Gospel are intended to dramatize. Christ's Body is now the dwelling of God's "glory" among us (see John 1:14). It's the new source of living waters John 4:10,14; 7:37- 39; 19:34), the living bread John 6:51), the new sanctuary where people will worship in Spirit and truth John 4:21,23). By Baptism, we are joined to His Body in the Church.

Sunday's Epistle says the Spirit of God comes to dwell in us and makes us "God's building...the temple of God" (see also 1 Corinthians 6:9). Jesus drove out the sellers of oxen, sheep and doves, signaling an end to the animal sacrifices that formed the worship of the old Temple. In the spiritual worship of the new Temple, we offer our bodies—our whole beings—as a living sacrifice. Like living stones (see 1 Peter 2:5) built on the cornerstone of Christ (see Mark 12:10; Acts 4:11), together we are called to build up the new Temple of God, the Church.

As the Jerusalem Temple was, so the Church will always be under construction—until at last it is perfected in the new Jerusalem, our mother Church, come down from heaven (see Revelation 21:3,10, 22; 22:1; Galatians 4:26).

– Yours in Christ, Scott Hahn, Ph.D.
