29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Hope from on High

The Lord is our guardian, beside us at our right hand, interceding for us in all our spiritual battles.

In today's Psalm we're told to lift our eyes to the mountains, that our help will come from Mount Zion and the Temple—the dwelling of the Lord who made heaven and earth.

Joshua and the Israelites, in today's First Reading, are also told to look to the hilltops. They are to find their help there—through the intercession of Moses—as they defend themselves against their mortal foes, the Amalekites.

Notice the image: Aaron and Hur standing on each side of Moses, holding his weary arms so that he can raise the staff of God above his head. Moses is being shown here as a figure of Jesus, who also climbed a hilltop, and on Mount Calvary stretched out His hands between heaven and earth to intercede for us against the final enemy—sin and death (see 1 Corinthians 15:26).

By the staff of God, Moses bested Israel's enemies (see Exodus 7:8-12; 8:1-2), parted the Red Sea (see Exodus 14:16) and brought water from the Rock (see Exodus 17:6).

The Cross of Jesus is the new staff of God, bringing about a new liberation from sin, bringing forth living waters from the body of Christ, the new Temple of God (see John 2:19-21; 7:37-39; 19:34; 1 Corinthians 10:4).

Like the Israelites and the widow in today's Gospel, we face opposition and injustice—at times from godless and pitiless adversaries.

We, too, must lift our eyes to the mountains—to Calvary and the God who will guard us from all evil.

We must pray always and not be wearied by our trials, Jesus tells us today. As Paul exhorts in today's Epistle, we need to remain faithful, to turn to the inspired Scriptures—given by God to train us in righteousness.

We must persist, so that when the Son of Man comes again in kingly power, He will indeed find faith on earth.

—Yours in Christ, Scott Hahn, Ph.D.

Mass Ministry Volunteers Needed

If you have experience in Mass Ministry, we are in need of volunteers to serve at Mass.

Please contact the parish office if you are interested.

We need Adult Servers, Lectors, Ushers, and Welcoming families.

Parish General Meeting

On Monday, October 24 at 7:00 in the evening, Our Lady of the Foothills will hold a Parish General Meeting. The meeting will be held in the parish hall downstairs. This is an opportunity for active committees to make presentations and provide updates to the parish. A finance committee report will also be presented.

This is an opportunity for anyone attending to ask questions or perhaps discover more ways be involved in parish life. Anyone with questions is encouraged to submit them to the church office ahead of time, so that a more detailed response can be provided at the meeting.

All are welcome and you are encouraged to attend. We look forward to seeing you there!

Holy Hour with Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament

Next: November 10
at 7:00 p.m.

2nd Thursday of every Month.
Everyone is welcome.

LIFE IN THE SPIRIT SEMINAR

The Holy Spirit is not someone merely relegated to Confirmation, but the Spirit desires a relationship with us that will take us on the greatest adventure imaginable, a journey to the very Heart of God. Come and enter into a more profound life-giving relationship with the Holy Spirit, marked by the love of God which breathes life into our daily existence.

2022 FALL APPEAL Together Again!

"Your very giving proves the reality of your faith, and that means that people thank God that you practise the Gospel that you profess to believe in, as well for the actual gifts you make to them and to others."
2 Corinthians 9:12-13

We are all called to share in the mission given to us by Jesus Christ. Together We Serve is an opportunity to come together again as One Church – after more than two years of disruption – generously sharing all that He has given to us to build His kingdom on earth.

Ask at the parish office how you can give to Together We Serve or visit: caedm.ca/togetherweserve

Prayer for Vocations

God of all creation, in every generation you call men and women to serve your people as priests, brothers, sisters and consecrated laity. Help us welcome out youth so they know your loving goodness and the value of faith. Enliven them through the Holy Spirit to hear and answer you in faith. Amen.

Synod Prayer

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name. With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts; Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it. We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder. Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions. Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right. All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.

Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen. (Can be also found in the new green 2022 Sunday Missal on page 601)
