Lover of Souls

Our Lord is a lover of souls, the Liturgy shows us today. As we sing in today's Psalm, He is slow to anger and compassionate toward all that He has made.

In His mercy, our First Reading tells us, He overlooks our sins and ignorance, giving us space that we might repent and not perish in our sinfulness (see Wisdom 12:10; 2 Peter 3:9).

In Jesus, He has become the Savior of His children, coming Himself to save the lost (see Isaiah 63:8-9; Ezekiel 34:16).

In the figure of Zacchaeus in today's Gospel, we have a portrait of a lost soul. He is a tax collector, by profession a "sinner" excluded from Israel's religious life. Not only that, he is a "chief tax collector." Worse still, he is a rich man who has apparently gained his living by fraud.

But Zacchaeus' faith brings salvation to his house. He expresses his faith in his fervent desire to "see" Jesus, even humbling himself to climb a tree just to watch Him pass by. While those of loftier religious stature react to Jesus with grumbling, Zacchaeus receives Him with joy.

Zacchaeus is not like the other rich men Jesus meets or tells stories about (see Luke 12:16-21; 16:19-31; 18:18-25). He repents, vowing to pay restitution to those he has cheated and to give half of his money to the poor.

By his humility he is exalted, made worthy to welcome the Lord into his house. By his faith, he is justified, made a descendant of Abraham (see Romans 4:16-17).

As He did last week, Jesus is again using a tax collector to show us the faith and humility we need to obtain salvation.

We are also called to seek Jesus daily with repentant hearts. And we should make Paul's prayer in today's Epistle our own: that God might make us worthy of His calling, that by our lives we might give glory to the name of Jesus.

—Yours in Christ, Scott Hahn, Ph.D.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED – Are you interested in helping at Share Shop in your free time? Our group works two days every two weeks. We are looking for help during the selling times, 12 to 3 pm. We have a great group of ladies who come early in the morning to sort and hang everything up, but by noon, when the store opens for selling, we are tired - only a few of us stay to work when the store is open. We need help picking up empty hangers, helping customers with their items, whether it be carrying things to a car or helping to fold and bag items. Your help, in any way, would be appreciated. Please contact Wendy Mackney or Shirley Roy for more information. Thank you

Church Keys

If you have a key to the church or hall, please call the office and speak to Mary Lou. I am in the process of having keys to the church and hall returned to the office. A new process is being set up for the parish regarding keys. The Archdiocese has expressed that parishes identify who has a key to the church or hall for insurance and safety purposes.

Attention all Volunteers

I will be calling volunteers over the next month, confirming if they are in fact still planning to volunteer in the parish and if any security checks need to be updated. If you would like to begin or resume volunteering, please contact the office and speak to Mary Lou who will pass your name on to me.

Thank you.

Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, "Look, half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor."
Luke 19:8
