Saints Peter and Paul

The Apostles' Church

This Sunday's celebration of the great Apostles Peter and Paul is a celebration of the Church. Peter's deliverance from jail is compared to the deliverance of Israel from Egypt. Like Israel, he is rescued at Passover from "the hand" of his enemy by an "angel of the Lord" after girding himself with belt, sandals, and cloak (see Exodus 3:8; 12:11; 14:19).

As Peter affirms in his great confession of faith in Sunday's Gospel, Jesus is "the Christ," the Messiah for whom the prophets had taught Israel to hope. But He is more than what the Jewish people had been hoping for.

He is the Christ, but He is also, as Peter confesses, "the Son of the living God." Born of the flesh of the Jewish people, He is a son of Abraham and David (see Matthew 1:1; Romans 1:3). Through Him and the Church founded on the rock of Peter's faith, God fulfills the promise He made to Abraham: to bless all nations in his seed (see Genesis 22:16-18).

What Christ calls "my Church" is the new Israel, the kingdom of God, the family made up of all peoples—Jews and Gentiles—who believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the living God (see Galatians 3:26-29; 6:15-16). And we must make this confession our own. Jesus' question, "Who do you say that I am?" is addressed to each of us personally.

We must confess our faith in Christ not only with our tongues but with our lives. As Paul describes his discipleship in this week's Epistle, we must make our lives an oblation, an offering of love for the sake of Jesus and His kingdom (see Romans 12:1).

We know, as we sing in this week's Psalm, that the Lord has rescued us in Christ Jesus. We know that He will stand by us, giving us strength to face every evil—and that He will bring us to the heavenly kingdom we anticipate in this Eucharist.

—Yours in Christ, Scott Hahn, Ph.D.

Prayer for Our Priests

Gracious and loving God, we thank you for the gift of our priests. Through them, we experience your presence in the sacraments. Help our priests to be strong in their vocation. Set their souls on fire with love for your people. Grant them the wisdom, understanding, and strength they need to follow in the footsteps of Jesus. Inspire them with the vision of your Kingdom. Give them the words they need to spread the Gospel. Allow them to experience joy in their ministry. Help them to become instruments of your divine grace. We ask this through Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns as our Eternal Priest. Amen.

Prayer for Vocations

Heavenly Father, bless your Church in the Archdiocese of Edmonton with an abundance of holy and zealous priests, deacons, religious, and seminarians. Give those You have called to the married state and those You have chosen to live as single persons in the world, the special graces that their lives require. Form us all in the likeness of Your Son so that in Him, with Him, and through Him we may love You more deeply and serve You more faithfully, always and everywhere. With the virgin mother Mary, we ask this through Christ your Son. Amen.

Respect for Life Prayers for June 29

We pray that our world may understand St. Paul's teaching on freedom and never use it to justify ending one's own life, no matter how difficult the circumstances.

May all people understand that true freedom is liberation from sin, grace to choose life, strength to accept and obey God's will.

Mass Intentions

Q: What does it mean to have a Mass "offered" for someone?

An individual may ask a priest to offer a Mass for several reasons: for example, in thanksgiving, for the intentions of another person (such as on a birthday), or as is most common, for the repose of the soul of someone who has died.

If you are interested in offering a mass for someone, please call or email the parish office.

The stipend is $10

to be paid before the mass is offered.

"One must never forget the infinite graces that flow from the Sacrifice of the Mass which benefit one's soul." – Pope Leo XIII
